GAN Career paths for youth through the Apprenticeship Model

October 4th. 10:30 AM to 1:00 PM
Bolsa de Comercio de Buenos Aires

299 Sarmiento - CABA, Argentina

According to the ILO, today, 71 million of youth are unemployed worldwide. 18.3% of young Argentina aged 15-24 years old do not have a job and about the same rate are Not in Employment, Education or Training (NEETS) and yet 40 % of employers say they cannot find the talent they require. Apprenticeships and work-readiness programs are proven solutions to address both the skills gap and youth employment. At the meeting, we will discuss the challenges around increasing apprenticeships with a special focus on inclusiveness. For this reason, we would like to invite you to this collaborative event to share best practices and introduce you to the GAN's one-year worldwide campaign, which will address the stigma around apprenticeships.
